

I understand that the Consumer Banking Association has asked you to ammend the Wisconsin No Call List to allow banks and other businesses to contact former customers by phone for a period of 18 months after cancellation of services. I urge you NOT to change the existing Wisconsin law. The No Call List has been a great law in protecting the privacy of consumers, and I would hate to see the law begin to be watered down for the benefit of big business at the expense of consumers. And for what it is worth, I work for a bank.
